EDITORIAL

WELCOME TO issue 26 of Final Conflict, the best Nationalist magazine around bar none.

We give you Radical Views based on Traditional Beliefs. We aren't afraid to call a spade a spade, and whilst we put great emphasis on presentation, we will not water-down our beliefs or kow-tow to "right-wing" fops in an effort to win support — any more than we will use "left-wing" rhetoric in an effort to appear "alternative".

We are Nationalist. Take it or leave it.

The right-wing and the left-wing have nothing to offer us. They continue to sell-out and betray our people.

We stand by our beliefs.

We oppose immigration and support the resettlement of Third World's flotsam and jetsom, for the benefit of all, but primarily our own people.

We oppose Capitalist greed and support the widespread distribution of property.

We oppose Marxist Internationalism and support European, Christian civilisation.

We oppose the UN, NATO and the EU and support national sovereignty and national independence.

We oppose homosexuality and abortion and support the rights of the family.

Some people don't like this. They don't like the fact that we have beliefs and that we won't change them in order to appear "reasonable" — but we say that there is no reason for the multi-racial chaos, promotion of faggotry in schools, taxed-to-the-hilt wage slaves, NWO terrorism and so on that we see every day.

Are we "extremists"? Well, if those who support the family, and oppose the EU, multi-racism and unrestricted greed are "extremists", then so be it!

THIS ISSUE

In this issue we touch again upon Nationalist history. We're pleased to cover the Finnish Winter War because that brave little Nation stood against the Bolshevik behemoth for so many years, despite the odds. We are also pleased to run an article penned by an organiser for Sir Oswald Mosley's Union Movement.

It is in understanding the past that we can plan and organise for the future...

The centrepiece of this issue of FC is perhaps the interview with Morris Riley, a man who took the insidious Searchlight organisation to court — and won! The more we expose Searchlies, the weaker their position becomes.

In closing we'd like to thank all the distributors of FC around the British Isles, Europe and further afield. They do a grand job — and if you've happened upon this issue of FC at a meeting, rally or concert in another country, be sure to contact a FC distributor to get future issues, back issues etc.

CD ROM

As you'll see elsewhere in this issue (page 18) the next issue of FC will also be available as a CD Rom issue. Those who already subscribe can get the CD Rom version by paying the extra £3.50. Those who don't subscribe — What! Are you mad? — can subscribe for the new CD Rom rate (see page 18 for details).

First the FC Daily e-mail Newsletter, then the exciting new FC Portal web-site (see page 19) and now a FC CD Rom with each issue of Final Conflict full-colour magazine... We really are too good to you lot!

ANTI-IRVING BOOK PULPED

A BOOK on Revisionism has been labelled so libelous that its UK edition had to be pulped for fear of being dragged through the courts.

So who is this "neo-Nazi" author defaming the great and the good? Who is this spreader of lies, this profiteer who damages the good names of individuals to rake in the dollars?

Why it's Professor Richard Evans — one of the "experts" called in by Deborah Lipstadt in her defence against David Irving! The nutty professor wrote the book "Lying About Hitler: History, the Holocaust and the David Irving Trial", published by Basic Books, New York, ($27.00 336 pp. ISBN: 0-465-02152-2).

The British publisher Wm. Heinemann Ltd took such a fright at the contents that they decided to pulp all the copies of the book they had printed.

With Mr. Irving going to appeal in the courts over the Lipstadt case, ammunition like only interview about the trial for Neues Deutschland, the former East German Soviet newspaper!

"More dramatically, their own behind-the-scenes experts revealed that they all realised what a close shave they had had, and that until Gray read out his judgment they had seriously feared defeat at my hands."

explaining the logistics of disposing of fifty thousand tons of corpses in three weeks in one building at Auschwitz using only a small Sonderkommando; fortunately for them, the judge willingly overlooked Pelt's failure to explain.

"Lipstadt herself explained to an all-day Toronto university seminar on the trial, three or four weeks ago, that the reason that her legal team had decided not to call any Auschwitz survivors into the witness stand was that they knew that "Mr Irving would tear them to shreds" in cross examination."

It certainly looks like the courtroom will see another gigantic battle this Summer.

Mr. Irving's web-site is at:
<http://www.focal.org>

ONE OF LIPSTADT'S "EXPERTS" SLIPS UP WITH HIS NEW LIBELOUS ANTI-IRVING BOOK

this is making his detractors very nervous!

As Mr. Irving wrote in an e-mail to Final Conflict in March:

"Prof. Hajo Funke, the defendants' "neutral" German expert on rightist organisations, gave his first and so far as we know

Professor David Cesarani, a historian dubbed "Ratface" even by his friends, told Die Zeit, a liberal German magazine, that my cross examination of their Auschwitz expert Prof. Van Pelt caused them scary moments when Pelt proved incapable of

MULTI-RACISM — TIME TO FACE FACTS

ASIANS RIOT in Bradford. No-go areas for Whites in Oldham. Muggers kill and maim in London. Drugs gangs use guns in most major towns and cities.

That is Blair's Bolshevik Britain in 2001.

It's not a pretty picture. Towns in places as diverse as Buckinghamshire, Lancashire, Yorkshire, Bedfordshire and Surrey are being turned into Third World ghettos, where Whites fear to walk for fear of gang violence or muggers.

The politicians, journalists and top policemen, who live in leafy suburbia, are content to betray our people on the altar of multi-racism.

Time and time again we've seen that Whites murdered in racial attacks are all but ignored, whereas immigrants injured or killed — even when the motive is NOT racial — get huge coverage!

Whites really are second class citizens as far as the liberal elite are concerned.

More and more Whites are seeing this reality for themselves.

and what are nationalists doing? Truth be told, not a lot.

Too many Nationalist supporters sit on the sidelines for fear of being called "racist" — the biggest smear of them all.

But perhaps worst of all, nationalists — and we use the term loosely in the 'broad church' respect — are still following tried and tested roads which lead to nothing but failure.

In a recent copy of the FC e-zine a contributor asked nationalists to remember the betrayal of the "main parties" come election time.

Here is the response that the FC e-zine editor made. We think it speaks volumes:

It is not the 'parties' that have betrayed -- but the system, the whole Party, Parliamentary System!

This is the same system which kept our fathers fathers in factories and mines and slum houses

ing. This is the same system that sent our grandfathers to war and butchered men by the thousand at the Somme and Gallipoli.

This party system has conspired from DAY ONE against the interests of the indigenous peoples of these islands.

They are the puppets of Big Business and Freemasonry. The sooner we accept that fact the sooner we can start claiming back our Nation the only way possible: street by street, area by area.

When the immigrants came here did they stand in elections to show their weakness? NO.

They bought properties and businesses.

Why are we White Nationalists so thick?

We - the Nationalist movement in the UK - have flung hundreds of thousands of pounds at election after election for what? Recruits that could be picked up just as easily in other ways.

It is our belief at FC that Counter Power is the way forward.

Imagine: English advice centres/community centres/youth clubs opening up in White enclaves around England. The feedback would be fantastic. The uproar would bring more coverage than 10,000 election addresses and to the besieged Whites - WE would be on their side.

The Marxists at Sinn Fein have done it in places like Belfast and Londonderry. There is nothing to stop White Nationalists doing it here.

And that is just the start! Distributist businesses, family farms, artisan/workers' Guilds.

There is a whole Nationalist structure available to REPLACE the parliamentary system. If 'we' continue throwing good money after bad in tired old ways, we will continue to fail.

If people want to electioneer - then let them do it in localised elections, where higher votes are often returned anyway.

Oldham Whites United Against Asian Racism; Rights For Whites; Anti-Labour Corruption; Burnley Residents.... whatever.

We must start thinking BEYOND the parliamentary sham which has done so much to destroy this land and turn it over to immigrants, homosexuals and multi-national profiteers.

We have a choice, and it's a life or death choice.

Choose wisely!

MASSIMO MORSELLO

Let his epitaph read:

HE NEVER BETRAYED, HE NEVER GAVE UP!

A PERSONAL APPRECIATION

by FC's editor.

I had known Massimo Morsello for quite a few years when he died. I was not a very close friend, but I'm proud to say that I knew the man and had plenty of opportunities to speak with him.

His is a story that very few can tell. Hounded by an enemy media and judiciary and smeared for many years — yet he remained a man above the lies of his powerful enemies and replied to them by building a strong business through hard work. This was something that annoyed his enemies who set about to further their attacks in the usual underhand way.

Massimo never betrayed his ideals. When many others would have given up after fleeing their country, or later would have sat back and enjoyed the profits of a successful business... he continued to fight for his Italy and for the Nationalist cause throughout Europe.

His is a life that will shame those who have "dropped out" of the fight because of bad or good times! This man saw both — and neither changed his steadfastness to fight for the Truth.

When I last saw Massimo, a few weeks before his death, he was clearly a weaker man physically. He had been using a cane for some time and I had to lift his little girl from her high chair in the restaurant we were in because he did not have the strength to do it.

But for all that I can honestly say that Massimo was a stronger man than I, or anyone else I have met.

When we sat alone I asked him about the disease — which the doctors had said, more than two years previously, would kill him in a matter of months. He said he thanked God for it because it had given him time to put his life in order, and prepare him for the end. This was a man riddled with cancer, and I'm not ashamed to say it was a very humbling and emotional experience!

At the end he passed away quickly for which his family are grateful because he was spared undue suffering — even if it didn't allow them to say their long goodbyes.

Massimo Morsello, who fought for Nationalism on the streets of Rome and later in exile in England, finally to return to help lead Forza Nuova, is a man we can all be proud of!

He never betrayed, he never sold out, he never stooped to their level of the enemy and he was always, always loyal!

Remember him Comrades, for there are precious few of his type in this world.

FORZA NUOVA'S STATEMENT:

March 10th 2001.

It is with immense sadness that the leadership of FORZA NUOVA announces the death of MASSIMO MORSELLO, Founder and Spiritual Head of the Movement. Massimo Morsello, after a life of wide-ranging and intense struggle, today concluded his earthly existence, leaving behind his indelible mark as a fascist, a Catholic and a militant of Forza Nuova.

The prayers of his family and his friends today turn to Almighty God and His Unspeakable and Eternal Judgement, which dominates the smallness of human life and gives Justice to the Just, and eternal bliss to those who truly loved - as did Massimo Morsello - his children, his comrades and his people.

THE DEATH OF MASSIMO MORSELLO: A Tribute by Roberto Fiore.

These words are clearly insufficient to encapsulate everything that all those who knew Massimo Morsello - as a family man, as a business entrepreneur, as a comrade, as a political militant, as an adversary - have thought on the occasion of his final journey.

Politically active from the age of 14, he faced the difficulty of the time with youthful enthusiasm and a humanity that has become proverbial with the passing of time. Losing his father at an early age, this only pushed him yet more militantly, more generously, into the political struggle of FUAN which was where he expressed his activism of this phase of his life.

He finds himself implicated in the Centocelle Affair (and which will lead to his one and only sentence), during which he is at the scene of the murder of Alberto Giaquinto by police who will remain forever unknown. Massimo's insistent demand to testify and to explain what really happened led the judges to the perverse conclusion of issuing a warrant for his arrest. It will be, as we have said, the only sentence pronounced in his life - the price to be paid for his loyalty to a comrade and to the Truth.

In August 1980, he begins his life in hiding, provoked by a warrant of arrest which will end in the dustbin of history. Morsello flees abroad, arriving in London, where he begins a life of economic hardship. He undertakes menial labour, but always within the confines of morality and his political ideal. Along with other comrades, he begins the political, economic and spiritual adventure which will break the rules of politics, and which will be the beginning of the most exciting come-back of a man and a political group.

Hunted, calumniated, persecuted, the London comrades began sowing the seeds of a real and true reconquest on the political, economic and spiritual planes, and which will become tremendously important with the passage of time.

The economic and managerial talent of Massimo, a mirror of the best Italian traditions, creates in due course the largest business of its kind in Europe: an authentic economic miracle which its enemies will never accept, concealing dark and little known forces.

But the Christian Faith of the individual speaks for itself, and leaves little space for compromise. Hundreds of individuals and families will come to benefit from this work which, with its unique style, will offer departure points for an alternative economy built on the human level. The funds for investment which allow staff and close friends to draw advantage from the growth of this business are used in the real spirit of the Guild System. The blind forces of the enemy will seek to label this work as "a clandestine and subversive activity", despite the fact that there are hundreds of personal and documented witnesses which demonstrate quite the opposite.

But it is in recent years that the London operation spreads its wings coinciding with, by an unseen divine plan, the eruption of illness, of cancer. Into the political void is born Forza Nuova, a Movement which, with tremendous skill, blends new and modern demands with the fascist patrimony, and the Catholic view of the world.

It is also at this time that Massimo takes the decisive step of his life, returning with trust and humility to the Catholic Faith. It is a Faith lived without contradiction, with rigour but yet with great humanity. Massimo will remain faithful to the Tridentine Latin Mass and to that unadulterated Catholicism, which is Roman and Eternal, until the end of his life.

The eruption of the illness will coincide with the first fruits of a work built up patiently over time. Even his attitude in confronting this evil is easy going and virile; and the file in which he kept the tests of his progressing illness was called "I don't care".

It is in the final days that the illness will become evermore pitiless. Massimo's response is dictated by a Faith in God by now unassailable. This Faith will be with him in his final minutes, in his final struggle. His last words are: "I am ready. I am ready". He is a fighter who never knelt before anyone other than his One and Only King. He is a King to whom Massimo Morsello will be able to present himself with many gifts, with many conversions and, who knows, perhaps even with pride state that he contributed to the Return of God to Italy, and of the Italians to God.

AMERICAN COMRADES REMEMBER

When news of Massimo's death broke across the world tributes came flooding in. Even in the heart of the beast, Nationalists paused to remember a gallant fighter:

NEW YORK THIRD POSITIONIST E-MAIL BULLETIN 03/12/01

With great sorrow and sadness the New York Third Position joins our Italian Comrades of Forza Nuova, our English Comrades of the Third Position, and all Comrades and supporters of the International Third Position, in mourning the passing of the gallant Nationalist Leader, Massimo Morsello. We offer our deepest and most heartfelt condolences to his Family, Comrades, Friends, and to the Italian People, who lost a fearless and tireless Fighter for their Families, Nation and for the ideals of their Christian Faith.

Signor Morsello passed away Friday evening, March 9th, after a long and devastating battle with cancer, during which time he also lost his young daughter to multiple sclerosis.

Through everything, Massimo displayed tremendous courage, strength, determination and resolve - ever the hallmarks of the Italian Nationalist and Patriot - and continued the Just Fight until the moment that he was taken from us.

IN HIS OWN WORDS...

THE FOLLOWING is a part of the interview with "Massimo Morsello, a Musician in Exile" which featured in Final Conflict mag #14/15 published in the Summer of 1997 (when Massimo was still in exile in England) and prior to the formation of Forza Nuova (following the betrayal of the MS 'Fiamma' leadership). It was this issue of FC which the Belgian courts declared illegal for daring to ask for openness in the study of history — no doubt the Italian authorities would likewise have liked to have banned it for the Massimo interview!

FC readers will have heard of your CD 'Punto di non Ritorno' - but this is just the latest release. Can you tell us a little of your musical background?

Massimo: I have written and played songs since I was 18, 20 years ago, in those days there were concerts with a few thousand comrades attending, nevertheless recordings were very basic and unprofessional. I must admit "Punto di non Ritorno" is the only professional recording I have ever done, and the fact that has sold 7,000 copies is confirmation of the importance of concentrating on the technical quality also.

Our readers will have read all about the 'concerts' in Milan and Rome last September, from the reviews section in the last issue of FC. Can you tell us a little more about them and why you chose to do them? Were they a serious venture or a way to poke fun at your enemies 'back home'?

Massimo: I wanted to organise something different, I wanted to go (symbolically) to Italy for two hours. The idea was that, despite my being in exile, I could play with my band live via satellite on maxiscreen in two important cities in Italy and thousands of comrades could have attended a concert performed by someone actually wanted by the police. The rest is known; over two thousand police were in Rome, creating a scenario of urban warfare, and they also banned the video from being broadcast, allowing only the sound. Some in the Italian press strongly criticised the police and the way the matter was handled.

We've already touched on the fact that you can't go home to Italy in the question about last year's 'concert'. Can you tell us why the Italian authorities won't allow you home? Some will have read articles in the gutter press about yourself and Massimo stood by the Fascist creed and gained inspiration from the young heroes of the RSI ('43 - '45) who remained loyal and gave all.

Roberto Fiore - would you like to put the record straight here?

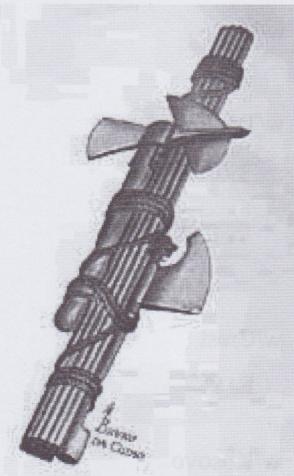

Massimo: Despite all the lies reported in the Italian and English press about myself the simple truth is that I was convicted of 9 years imprisonment for being part of a subversive association. This is not the only fact of this period. In the 70's it was the natural development for a nationalist who could not accept as a compromise what the democratic political system offered. Most of the representatives of the system we opposed are being jailed for corruption, but no credit has been given to the nationalists who fought against them.

Now that you are forced to live outside Italy, has this brought home the point that the Nationalist fight is a pan-European, indeed world-wide, fight?

Massimo : Yes it has, and this is the biggest acquisition from my being in exile.

Events in Italy seem to unfold at a rapid pace - the formation of the liberal National Alliance of Fini, the rise of a strong and traditional Nationalist movement in the MS Fiamma Tricolore and the coming to government of the Communist-Freemason-Bankster coalition 'the Olive Tree'. Can you tell us a brief background to these events?

Massimo: As you've said the political power that prior to now was substantially in the hands of the anti-nationalist and international banks, hidden behind the socialists, is now also the official and political power. The hegemony of those lobbies is striking and total. This obvious disadvantage for the Italian people could cause their down fall by opening the eyes of the Italian people.

Do you see any hope for the future of Italy?

Massimo: The only way out for the Italian people is through

A proud moment for all Italians as Forza Nuova cause the Celtic Cross to be flown outside the colloseum!

Fascism, returning the economic sovereignty to the nation, the recreation of the workers' guilds, and the restoration of the faith in our origins as well as in our future.

Recently we ran a piece on the Social Republic of Italy (RSI: 1943 - 1945). Does this period of Italian history inspire you?

Massimo: The RSI is the clearest example of Fascist and national self-determination. Those 20 year-old heroes who did not compromise on anything; their pride and love for their nation was of a far stronger importance than anything else including their own lives. 8 di Settembre is the second song in my album "Punto di non Ritorno" dedicated to the invaluable inheritance that the RSI left us.

Any last words for our readers?

Massimo: I thank them for listening to my songs and I hope they will follow my work, as I have plans to go on doing it.

REST IN PEACE, COMRADE

A personal report from the funeral of Massimo Morsello by FC's Italian Correspondent

THE FUNERAL of Massimo Morsello took place in Rome in the Church of the Saints Peter and Paul in the Borough of E.U.R., built by Mussolini, where Massimo was born. I was personally deeply moved by the ceremony, which was keenly followed by more than 1,500 Comrades gathered from all over Italy and abroad.

During the night a lot of people kept vigil by the coffin wrapped in the Italian Flag and the Celtic Cross.

The following day a Mass was celebrated in Latin according to Tridentine Rite. Father Ignacio Barreiro remembered Massimo as a Man of Faith, a great Comrade, a model of Loyalty and Honour.

When the Mass was finished the coffin was carried on some Comrades' shoulders and when it appeared at the Church gate a voice rent the air:

"Comrade Morsello!"

and the Nationalists present answered
"Presente!" ("Here!") three times.

Then in the magnificent frame of the Church, with the Flags and the banners of Forza Nuova flapping in the wind the coffin was carried down the stairs while the music of Massimo's CD "Punto di non Ritorno" ("Point of no Return") filled the atmosphere.

All the Comrades, men and women, were singing as one voice, giving Massimo the last salute, the last farewell.

May Almighty God keep his Soul beside Him and bring comfort to all the people who loved him and are now missing him.

Massimo, Comrade and Brother, rest in Peace!

The Black Knight.

The only 'English' newspaper to pick up on the funeral was the Sunday Express — owned by the pornographer-in-chief Richard Desmond.

We don't know if the reporter Yvonne Ridley works for Desmond's other titles such as 'Asian Babes' or his pornographic website or TV channel, but she does use all the old calumnies against Massimo.

It seems the liars will not even let this great man be! Even Searchlies very-own liar Gerry Gable (fresh from the court-room?) got a quote in, though he had the good sense to add the proviso that Massimo was "often accused" of this and that.

Massimo always treated such political pygmies with the contempt that they deserve. We should do likewise.

Massimo sacrificed all for his land — even to the extent of living in exile. All these degenerates are interested in is lying to make a living and serving dubious masters in the process.

THE WINTER WAR

FINLAND'S STAND AGAINST BOLSHEVISM 1939 - 1940

by Dr. Tomas Ries, Finland's National Defence College.

The Winter War erupted on 30 November 1939, when Stalin unleashed his Red Army in an all-out assault against Finland. In August that year Stalin and Hitler had divided eastern Europe between them in the Molotov-Ribbentrop Pact, leaving Finland isolated in the Soviet sphere of influence. During the fall Stalin demanded that Finland cede key parts of the country to the USSR. When Finland refused to meet all his demands Stalin unleashed his armies.

INVASION!

In the winter dawn of 30 November four Soviet Armies with 23 divisions - some 460,000 men with over 2,000 tanks - began advancing across the length of Finland's 1,200 km long eastern border. Their objective was to occupy the entire territory of Finland by the end of the year, installing Moscow's puppet 'Terijoki Government' in Helsinki, and establishing a new 'Democratic Republic of Finland'. Their troops were issued with detailed written warnings not to cross into Sweden once they had reached Finland's western border, and the 7. Army included a military band for the victory parade in Helsinki.

On December 3, 1939, three days after the Red Army's unprovoked attack on Finland, the newly appointed foreign minister, Väinö Tanner, spoke to American radio listeners in a live broadcast from Helsinki.

Few at the time expected the tiny Finnish nation of 3.6 million to survive. But despite the odds Finland reacted with desperate determination. On the one hand the country was determined to fight, and the full field army of some 160,000 men had been mobilized and sent eastwards into position along the front during the fall. On the other hand Finland also was grimly prepared for the worst, and began sending her national treasure - her children - to safety in Sweden, to cover the possibility of a Soviet victory and Stalin's national extermination programmes. Leaving at night from blacked out harbours along Finland's western coast, in the gaps between wailing sirens warning of Soviet bombers, none of the thousands of departing children or their parents remaining behind knew whether they would see each other again.

400,000 DEAD RUSSIANS

Four months later, after the hardest fighting seen in Europe since the first World War and massive Soviet reinforcements, Finland's lines remained unbroken, while the Red Army had lost up to 400,000 soldiers in casualties. Finland's soldiers were now down to their last bullets, but Stalin did not know that, and he was running out of time. With the spring thaws approaching, his forces risked becoming bogged down in the extensive wetland forests along the front, while politically every week lost increased his humiliation and vulnerability vis à vis a vengeful Japan in the Far East, an ambitious Hitler in the west, and a Britain and France that were considering intervention on Finland's side.

In early March Stalin conceded defeat, abandoning his occupation plans and settling for a compromise agreement, leaving Finland independent. With the signing of the Peace Agreement on 13 March Finland had to cede 10 % of her territory to the USSR, but Finland herself remained free.

Finnish volunteers in the Waffen SS who went on to take the fight to the Bolsheviks after Germany's invasion of Russia in 1941, whilst the war between Finland and the Soviet Union broke out again between 1941 and 1944.

INDEPENDENT FINLAND

The Winter War is one of the milestones in the history of independent Finland, and the conclusions subsequently drawn by Finland's political leaders, along with the lessons of the Continuation War with Russia between 1941 - 1944, became the foundation for Finland's security policy during the Cold War.

Today, over sixty years later, these lessons bear renewed scrutiny. They were the product of a particular environment, which left Finland in a highly dangerous and exposed position.

Today however this has changed. In the last decade the Soviet Union has collapsed, the world has been transformed, and Finland has been released from her bitter Cold War straitjacket. She has seized the opportunity to chart a new international course, and is now eagerly beavering her way westwards. On the other hand her geographical position next to Russia remains unchanged.

The question for Finland today is thus how much has changed. Are the lessons of the Winter War still relevant, or have the new conditions released Finland from her former bondage to the east?

FORTY YEARS ON

A look back at Mosley's UNION MOVEMENT by an activist.

By John (Griff) Wood.

I first became active in Union Movement in the late fifties. Prior to that, I had been a typical young man from a Conservative supporting family and my only forays into politics was to help out at the local Tory headquarters at election times.

My introduction to an entirely different world was when I picked up a discarded copy of Action on a tramcar; yes there were trams running in Sheffield in those days!

The effect on me was astounding; never had I read anything like this before! At first, the news seemed too far-fetched to be credible; I hadn't seen articles so seemingly outspoken and such was the effect that this publication had on me, I immediately sent off for details.

ACTION

I received a reply within a few days and, enclosed with the information pack, were several leaflets together with a current copy of Action, the paper that had started me off on the road to an alternative outlook. I quickly realized that although the paper was so very different from the Daily Mail, which I read every day, it was printing views and opinions which I, and many like me, had secretly been thinking for years. From that day forth, I was committed!

Supporters and members soon approached me from the local U.M. branch and I started attending meetings and doing the obligatory newspaper selling. Very shortly I was a full member of the branch and was an active participant whenever and wherever I was needed. I was greatly indebted at the time to the Yorkshire Regional Organizer, Frank Hamley. He had been with O.M. since the days of the New Party and had been incarcerated in a concentration camp on the Isle of Man during the war. I had never known that the British Government had, without trial, imprisoned loyal men because of their opposition to the war. I learned very quickly that the politics of the Establishment was a very dirty business indeed.

After a relatively short time I was appointed Branch Leader and, under the guidance of the Regional Organiser, began to build up a very active cadre of enthusiasts.

EARLY DAYS

It wasn't long after joining U.M. that I went to hear the Leader speak. I remember the first meeting I ever attended. It was outside Alexandra Frank Hamley, Sir Oswald Mosley and John Wood, at a BUF meeting in Islington, 1959.

Park Gates in Manchester, not a stone's throw from Moss Side! In those days, the place was not as foully corrupted as it is now!

I listened to several speakers that day, George Webb was one of them and so was Frank Hamley; both rousing orators. The moment came for O.M. to speak; the climax of the occasion. As I listened and looked at him, I saw that this was a man I could follow, completely and without question. He was of a different calibre of the politicians I had known before and the message came out crystal clear. This was a man! This was a patriot!

I was a newcomer in those days surrounded by men who had been with O.M. from day one. I still had an awful lot to learn but after meeting the Leader, life was never going to be quite the same again. Like most people, I used to listen to the news on radio or watch it on television, most of it going in one ear and out of the other but after even only a few weeks in U.M., I saw the news programmes in a different light; I realized that we, the general public, were being systematically brainwashed time and time again. I began to look for flaws and found great gaps. I searched for the truth and knew then that I wasn't going to get it; not from the B.B.C. anyway! It didn't take long to discover why U.M. in general and O.M. in particular were hated by those in power. They knew that Mosley had a terrible weapon at his disposal.... He told the truth!!!

Even so, in the late Fifties and early Sixties, it was possible to hold meetings without too much trouble. In many places, we were allowed to steward our own meetings which we did to the chagrin of those who would disrupt us! Uniforms were a thing of the past but we adopted an unofficial style which most of us wore. It was a simple form of dress comprising black trousers, black tie and white shirt, complete with the Flash and Circle badge, of course. We wore that garb with pride and I never once was challenged by the police for wearing it. It was far different many years later when I was arrested in Belgium. On that occasion it was a black tie with a brown shirt!!!

EDUCATION U.M. STYLE

In Union Movement, great emphasis was placed on members being aware of the party's policies on each and every subject. This was a legacy from British Union days where there was an official directive on every aspect. There was a written policy covering all the major issues: Housing, Unemployment, Education, Defence, etc. A similar system was adopted by U.M. and potential local and general election candidates had no excuse for being lost for an answer when grilled by the news media.

Local branch leaders were encouraged to ensure that members were fully aware of the party line and although a united Europe and immigration were the main issues of the day, other areas of concern were not neglected. There was always a stream of information available from Central H.Q. It is, perhaps, the lack of similar schemes in later nationalist movements that have stunted their growth. I know of no other party that constantly produced policies as comprehensively than B.U. and U.M.

I have mentioned Frank Hamley before and there are many stories I could recount about him; a couple of them will probably suffice here.

Frank used to accompany one or two of us on leaflet distributing and, while walking through the streets, he would point to a factory sign and say "The owner of that place was a member of B.U." or "I was on the Isle of Man with him." Several times the two of us would pop in a place to see an ex- B.U. member and the receptions we received varied immensely. Sometimes we would be greeted with a stony stare followed with "It was a long time ago, things are different now" and "Oh, no! Not you! I want to forget all that." On the other hand, there were those who hadn't been involved in politics for 20 years or so who would greet Frank with enthusiasm and have a yarn about the 'old days'. Quite often, these visits coincided with election times when we would get several generous donations towards our costs. Sometimes these donations were made on the condition of absolute anonymity! I used to think it strange that people who had supported O.M. in the great years seemed to think that it was something to be ashamed about. Mind you, at that time I had yet to experience the harshness and bigotry of some sections of the Great British Public!

On some evenings, members were encouraged to prepare for public speaking; the method was simple yet very effective. One of us, in turn, would be required to speak for one minute on describing an everyday object: a box of matches, a teapot, an ash-tray, etc. After several sessions, the 'ums', the 'ers' and the 'you knows' rapidly diminished and the speaking time was increased to five minutes. Quite quickly, many members could be relied on to speak rationally and coherently in public for ten minutes or more prior to the main orator at local outdoor meetings. Frank Hamley, however was a master of oratory and he was the only man I know who could shout down a heckler who was using a loud-hailer. Those of you who remember Frank will remember his nick-name... Old Leather-Lungs!

GOOD TIMES AND BAD TIMES

Local elections were given a prominent place in all branches and I well remember my first introduction to them.

As Branch Leader, I was expected to set an example and after a brief word of encouragement from my regional boss, I was persuaded to stand in my own ward. The encouragement, if I recall, was something like "I've got your nomination papers.... Go and get them filled!" Frank Hamley again!

I found this new experience exciting and the night after I had become an official candidate, another member and I went out and I painted my first wall! The fact that we had to paddle across a river to get to the wall didn't dampen our resolve. We were spotted leaving the scene by a police patrol and I found myself riding pillion on a small motor scooter with no lights at two in the morning! We weren't caught, however, I think the police were after bigger fish that night! We had used a rubberised road-marking paint which one of the members had obtained and my companion, on looking at our slogans said to me "That will still be around for your children to see." Little did we both realize that it would be still visible for my grandchildren to see!

As I have said, it was my first election and when the press approached me, I gladly gave them an interview baring my very soul in order to put the message across... Silly, silly!

In those days I was naïve enough to trust them! You won't be very surprised when I tell you that what I said to the press was nothing on earth to what was printed. Although I didn't get the most votes in that particular poll, at least I beat the communist candidate and I reckoned that was victory indeed. I stood for election several times after that; older, wiser and completely distrustful of any reporter! My wife also stood as an U.M. candidate several times; on one occasion, seven months pregnant!

PAYING FOR MY BELIEFS

They were good times; what happened next was certainly for me, a very bad time. I had been campaigning for an election while on holiday from work. When I returned, I was summoned into the Director's office who told me that my career prospects in the company were nil and that I had better start looking for another job. I didn't give the man the satisfaction of firing me; I quit. This situation repeated itself later three more times...How could I fight for wrongful dismissal, go to the Trade Union? I would have been as popular as a pork pie at a Bar Mitzvah!

1961 saw 12 candidates in the Sheffield Council elections. Special posters were produced for us by U.M. and the Leader was to speak in the City Hall. The great day of the meeting came and we were supported by a coach-load of London members. The meeting was reasonably quiet for Sheffield where anyone to the right of Lenin was considered to be the Devil incarnate! After the meeting, I had the honour of entertaining the Leader at home after inviting him for a meal. Again, my old friend Frank was there with us. For many years afterwards, the chair that O.M.

used at the table was regarded by fellow members with awe and pride. To be invited to sit on it was an offer reserved for the elite few! That chair is about sixty years old now and the seat has been recovered a couple of times since that memorable day. It is well past its sell-by date and is currently in the spare bedroom at home but it is referred to as O.M.'s chair even to this day! That was a very good day!

Sir Oswald Mosley

LATER MEETINGS

After O.M. came to Sheffield, he started a tour of the North and after speaking at a rally in York he told me that he had been approached by the Regional Organiser of the B.N.P. (the original B.N.P.) if it were possible to discuss a merger. I accompanied the Leader to the meeting that was held in a nearby York hotel. The B.N.P. representative was Derek Ainsworth, whom I had met previously. He was a very likeable person, a good speaker and organiser. The meeting went very well and O.M. was impressed by Ainsworth's arguments for a merger. The stumbling-block, and it was a big one, was the question of Europe and its place in Nationalist policies. There was no way, obviously, that the Leader would relent on that issue so the two parties agreed to differ. Afterwards, I began to see that there were far more B.N.P. members present at our meetings than before. They didn't apply for membership but they supported our meetings at many venues.

There were not many Trafalgar Square meetings that I missed; they were a must for most members who descended on the capital from all over the country. At one of those meetings, I was on the plinth taking photographs while the Leader was speaking when something hit me over the eye and I found myself bleeding profusely. The missile was a penny (pre-decimal, of course) which had been filed round the edge; a favourite weapon of the reds. On another occasion on a march in Manchester, a man came out of a house along the street and threw his Sunday dinner at me!

One meeting I did miss out on was when a car carrying a party of us to London was involved in an accident on the A1. There were five of us in the car, when it skidded on mud from some road-works. I was the unlucky one that day having been thrown out of the car as it turned over at least twice before coming to a battered stop! The other four were eventually able to make their way to the meeting but I was incarcerated in Huntingdon Hospital with a fractured skull! I heard later that Jeffery Hamm announced the news of the accident over the P.A. system at the start of the meeting saying that a U.M. Organiser had been injured and was in hospital. The resultant jubilation among the lefties in the Square was deafening!

Since those days, I have been a member of other parties and supported similar organisations abroad. I have spoken at countless meetings up and down the country and met with many political leaders. I have never, however, found anyone to compare with the greatest of these leaders, O.M. and I know that I never will. It is said that A.K. Chesterton's last words in his biography Portrait of a Leader, "Hail Mosley; patriot and leader of men" epitomised him. A description of him to me by an old fellow member, Fred Bailey, said it all in just one word...

"Incorruptible." — Let that be his epitaph!

AN INTERVIEW WITH MORRIS RILEY: THE MAN WHO TOOK SEARCHLIGHT TO COURT

... AND WON!

Morris Riley is a successful writer whose book, 'Philby: the Hidden Years' was blocked from being published by the British State for around 14 years, eventually appearing in print in July 1999. He also published The Gulf magazine and has written for Counter-Spy, The Digger, The Intelligence Newsletter and Lobster.

He took the Searchlight magazine (and its editor Gerry Gable, columnist Ray Hill and printers The Russell Press) to court after an August 1993 article appearing in Ray Hill's column (but arguably written by Gerry Gable) accused Mr. Riley of working for the British Secret Intelligence Service.

In February 2000 Mr. Riley won his case and was awarded £5,000 plus costs (£16,000 plus VAT).

1. Prior to your court case against Searchlight you were best known as a writer. Can you tell us a little of your background and the works you have written?

Over the last 20 years I have had articles published about the British Security and Intelligence Services published in America, Britain and France.

2. Would you consider yourself as part of the media termed "extreme right"?

My politics are varied and I cannot apply any one political label to myself aside from mainly middle.

3. What on earth caused Searchlight to defame you in their pages?

Varied reasons. An attack against Larry O'Hara and myself, because Gable did not like/was jealous of my allegedly assisting the Secret Intelligence Service (SIS) MI6.

4. What was your first reaction when you heard that Searchlight had lied about you?

My first reaction was "Good God". I cannot visit certain countries in the Middle East again because if picked-up by the secret police, in Iraq or Iran, for example and they had the article, it would be a death warrant against myself. You recall what happened to that Observer journalist just over 10 years ago...

5. Many people have been lied about in Searchlight magazine, but only a handful — you, Garry Bushell and Alexander Baron — have been able to take the magazine to court. What made you decide to risk so much time and money in a court case?

I learned the truth about S####light nearly 20 years ago in terms of how they unjustly smeared and libelled people whom I knew, including the head of the Libertarian Alliance, Chris Tame; the well-known anarchist Stuart Christie; and the head of the London based anti-Soviet Organization (NTS), George Miller, people who could not afford to fight back; and, always took the view that if ever libelled, that I would take action in the courts.

Alexander Baron did not take it as far as going into court. It was settled out of court, and Baron accepted £5,000.

6. Can you tell us about the actual court case, i.e. who from Morris Riley with his manuscript for Philby: The Hidden Years.

Searchlight took the stand, what was said, who defended the scurrilous mag and what was the final finding of the court?

No-one took the stand: Gable is very good indeed at sitting back and writing (little) libelous articles, but when it comes to taking the stand he acts like the coward he is and bottles out. I expect the same to happen in the cases of Messrs Taha and Fiore.

The jury certainly did not believe Counsel for Gable and Hill, and awarded me £5,000.

7. It would seem from the case that Hill accused Gable of writing his column for him — a column which contained the most bitter and twisted language and misinformation disguised as gossip. What do you think this says about Gable and what would you say the relationship between Gable and Hill was, and is now following the case?

I would state, almost 100% that it was Gable who wrote the column (as Hill claimed in his witness statement) but neither would stand up in court. I do not know what their relationship is now, but would guess bad, because Gable did all he could to keep Hill out of court, to no avail.

This is quite a long story. I had to threaten S'light's company secretary, Sonia Gable, with action in order to pass across a substituted service (a libel writ) onto Ray Hill. Prior to that month Gable had claimed not to have Hill's address! (They soon 'found' his address!).

8. Have you noticed any intimidation or further smears/attacks against you since the court case?

No. In August 1993 Gable phoned me and promised that I would not be mentioned in the magazine again. To date, he has kept his word.

9. You were awarded £5,000 by the court. Do you think this was sufficient — or was it the principle at stake that mattered more?

Interestingly enough, the printers and distributors, Russell Press Ltd, offered me £5,001 out of court (which I accepted).

10. What would you say, as a man outside of a political organisation and certainly not a "fascist" or "anti-fascist", to commentators who treat Searchlight as a serious and truthful organisation which fights racism and fascism?

Some of the members of Searchlight are very genuine indeed, such as Steve Silver; and Nick Lowles, who has written some very objective articles about the BNP — as recently acknowledged in their magazine Spearhead. On the other hand, there are those such as Gerry Gable who has been a cynical exploiter of Jewish suffering, and for the past twenty-five years or more has latched onto a highly lucrative 'gravy-train'. His (financial) backers must have found him to be very plausible indeed, thus missing all that you pointed out in #20 of Final Conflict.

11. Since your embroilment with some of the insidious people involved in Searchlight what did you think when you heard that Searchlight was given tens of thousands of pounds by the National Lottery?

My reply would be very slanderous indeed. Therefore, I had better not make it.

12. Do you think the fact that Searchlight runs a registered charity which is so closely interlinked with its magazine so as to be virtually identical to the man in the street brings the Charity Commission into disrepute, bearing in mind that amongst other things, Searchlight publishes details of people and so 'lines them up' for physical assaults?

Ditto my previous answer.

13. What would you say your struggle with Searchlight has taught you?

That, notwithstanding, the 'dirty-tricks' played against litigants, that we litigants can still win!

14. What would you advise anyone else defamed in the pages of Searchlight to do?

Have a spare £20,000 for legal costs.

15. Any closing comments?

Let us see what happens with reference to the two present litigants, Mark Taha and Roberto Fiore. The Contempt of Court Act precludes me from saying any more.

Morris Riley, 25th January 2001.

ALL HAS NOT been well of late for Searchlies. Taken to court by Mark Taha for libel, the intrepid Zionist liars could well get hammered in the courts again.

This is simply the latest in a long line of acute embarrassments for the Searchlies team, when they have lost court cases or been forced to settle out of court because of the extravgant nature of their lie machine. If the libel laws were more favourable to the less-well-off and organisations, as on the continent, Searchlight would be bankrupt by now!

MR EVIL AND RED ACTION

RED ACTION were quick in the queue to have a pop at their erstwhile "anti-fascist" colleagues at Searchlies. They denounced the Searchlies book 'Mr. Evil, The Secret Life of Fascist Bomber and Killer David Copeland' for containing some obvious chronological and factual errors. They also exposed its agenda at taking sides in a "security services" internal squabble.

More amusingly they pointed out that just three months after going on sale at the inflated price of £14.99, the book was being offered "free" in the pages of Searchlies!

ENOUGH TO MAKE YOU CHHOKAR

THE ASIAN Marxist thug who smashed the Hess 'peace stone' in Scotland (see FC mag #7), Aamer Anwar has been forced by the law firm he works for —T.F. Reid and Donaldson — to drop the campaign on behalf of Surjit Singh Chhokar. Pressure also came from Dr. Raj Jandoo who is heading the official enquiry into the death.

The Marxist Anwar has been keen to jump on any "racist" bandwagon in Scotland and will continue to represent the Chhokars in a 'personal capacity'.

DESIGNER SOCIALIST TWERP

STAYING NORTH of the border, sun-tanned designer Socialist Tommy Sheridan, leader of the Scottish Socialist Party (and its only Scottish MP) has called for all drugs — including heroin — to be legalised.

This at a time when heroin and the crime related to it is blighting working class areas of Scotland! Mind you, we shouldn't be surprised. Sheridan's view for those too poor to 'afford' children is to murder the young in abortion clinics. He is also pro-homosexual and supported getting rid of Section 28 — against the wishes of most working-class people.

CHAMPAGNE SOCIALIST TWERP

THE SCOTTISH Socialist Party are an unknown commodity to most of us in England, but their main line seems to be protecting abortion clinics (and their big profits!). As with their lefty chums in England, Germany, France (and everywhere!), the SSP seem to attract more support from the middle and upper classes than they do from "the workers".

Peter Mullan is a SSP member and benefactor. Who he? He won the best actor award in Cannes (very working class there!) for the film My Name is Joe, and whilst a feature in Scotland on Sunday didn't say as much, Mullen "chose" his daughter's school because it had posters of Rwanda on its walls. So are we to believe his daughter goes to a fee-paying school?

Very Socialist!

A TAXING QUESTION

THE SOCIALIST Party (aka 'Militant'), based in East London, says (in a leaflet 'The Truth about Asylum Seekers') that Asylum Seekers do not raise council tax bills because the money "is due to be repaid in full by central Government."

And where do the Red twits think central Government money comes from? The taxes of you and me dear reader!

Talk about playing with figures! Can they deny that millions of our tax pounds are paying for Third World spongers whilst hospitals and schools decay?

DON'T GIVE UP THE DAY JOB

What a treat! A former member of Oxford SWP (no name given!) gave a talk in the University of London in March on "Why I left the SWP to join the International Communist League". Heady stuff! Organised by the 'Spartacist League' and headlined "From Labourite reformism to Trotskyism"... Riveting stuff eh?

THE GREAT UNWASHED

A TALE OF WOE AMONGST THE SELF-STYLED WORKERS' CHAMPIONS

AMERICA: ADL CAUGHT OUT A Federal judge has upheld a jury's findings that the Freemasonic Zionist group, the Anti-Defamation League defamed a couple by publicly accusing them of being anti-Semitic, but reduced punitive damages against the organization. District Court Judge Edward Nottingham said that the ADL "acted recklessly in its efforts to publicize what it perceived to be anti-Semitic conduct."

William and Dorothy Quigley will now receive $9.75 million.

AMERICA: ADL SLAMMED BY RABBI Calling secular Judaism's preoccupation with victimhood "liberalism with a circumcision," Orthodox rabbi Daniel Lapin's group 'Toward Tradition' has given the "Our Own Worst Enemy Award" to Abraham Foxman, the head of the Anti-Defamation League.

The rabbi cited Foxman's letter in the March 23 issue of the New York Times. In it, the ADL leader compared ads by conservative Jewish activist David Horowitz — who opposes reparations to blacks for being the descendants of slaves — with revisionists.

"Put that together with Foxman's statement last week about the 'big eruption' of anti-Semitism in New York, and so on, and you get the picture of a guy who's not in close touch with reality," Lapin said.

The ADL "gets paid (by contributors) according to how much anti-Semitism it finds," said rabbi Lapin's business partner.

Toward Tradition said it picked Foxman "from among other representatives of the Anti-Semitism Industry" because of his role in former president Clinton's pardon of Jewish fugitive tax evader Marc Rich.

Citing a Newsweek report, the group said: "After the ADL received a $100,000 check from the Rich Foundation, Foxman wrote to Bill Clinton urging the pardon." In doing so, Foxman "joined other leading Jewish liberals who had benefited from the billionaire's largesse. The ensuing scandal was a comfort to true anti-Semites who say that Jews buy and sell justice," Toward Tradition said.

AMERICA: ZIONIST LEADER ASSAULTS 12-YEAR-OLD

Welcome to the mad, bad world of loony Zionism!

Mordechai Levy, the loopy head of the violent Zionist Jewish Defense Organization (JDO) recently pleaded guilty to assaulting a 12-year-old boy in New York.

The incident took place while the child was taking part in a summer camp run by the JDO which was training Jewish tots in the use of guns and martial arts! According to the complaint, Levy "kicked the boy in the face and eye, then struck him with his elbow in the middle of his back before kicking him in his testicles."

The victim, a Russian Jewish immigrant living in New York City, was taken to the hospital with contusions and in substantial pain.

Levy has already served a prison sentence, following his conviction for firing a semi-automatic assault rifle at a private investigator and Jewish Defense League (JDL) leader Irv Rubin. During the shooting spree a bystander was wounded in the leg by a stray bullet.

The JDO is an outgrowth of the JDL established by the late Rabbi Meir Kahane who, in turn, inspired many genocidal attacks on Palestinians in the Middle East.

Whilst Searchlight's "hero" Harry Bidney was busy buggering children in-between pimping, their colleagues in America are still busy battering children...

AMERICA: HOMOSEXUALS HAVE MORE RIGHTS

A Minnesota high school officially sanctions "gay pride," but recently banned a solitary expression of "straight pride."

Elliott Chambers, 16, is the owner of a sweatshirt that reads "Straight Pride" on the front with a logo of a boy and girl holding hands on the back. He tried to wear it at his school recently, which has "gay pride" stickers and posters on its walls and doors designating so-called "safe zones" for poof students.

The school principal banned Elliott from wearing the sweatshirt. Elliott had a new shirt made to wear after his sweatshirt was banned. It simply reads, "Help, I'm being repressed." <http://straightpridewear.com/>

AMERICA: JESSE JACKSON SHUTS UP AT LAST

Most readers will know that the "Rev" Jesse Jackson, always one for stirring up anti-White hate, was silenced recently when a love-child was discovered. Not only did Jackson put an employee in the Pudding Club, but he then used funds from one of his tax-exempt corporations to set up the mother in an expensive home in L.A.

Citizenship Education Fund Inc., paid Jackson's mistress, Karin Stanford, $40,000 to enable her to make a down payment on the home (with swimming pool and double garage!). Jackson was (is?) paying her $10,000 a month for child support, more than enough to keep up the monthly payments on the house. How charitable!

The misuse of funds — reminiscent of another Marxist black "Rev", Alan Boesack in South Africa — could land Jackson in jail.

Ms. Stanford, who was director of Jackson's Washington office, moved to California soon after DNA tests proved that Jackson was the father of her baby girl. A DNA test was needed because another man was also "in the picture". How quaint.

No wonder Jackson was a "spiritual" advisor to Clinton during Lewinskygate... what the advice was we can only wonder!

FRANCE: GREEN HERO IS PAEDOPHILE Daniell Cohn-Bendit, the Jewish, left-wing French MEP is under fire for an article in which he wrote 'how flirtatious encounters... with children in his care as young as five had taken on 'erotic characteristics' and developed into more intimate contact from which he did not walk away'.

In a 1975 book 'The Big Madness' the Zionist MEP wrote about his experiences in a Frankfurt Kinderladen (a left-wing alternative to the Kindergarten). He wrote: "My constant flirt with all the children soon took on erotic characteristics. I could really feel how from the age of five the small girls had already learnt to make passes at me. It's hardly believable. Most of the time I was fairly defenceless."

He has distanced himself from his own paedophile apologetics... no doubt with his well-paid career in mind!

Cohn-Bendit, 55, first came to prominence when as a red-haired student he led the May 1968 demonstrations in Paris, earning the nickname 'Danni the Red'. He is now one of the most pro-EU politicians around! Cohn-Bendit once shared a flat with Joschka Fischer, the Minister whose violent Communist affiliations have caused so much consternation to the German government.

According to Gerd Koenen, a fellow smelly of the 70s, the movement's two main aims were to solve "the fixation" of children towards their parents and the establishment of a children's solidarity 'battle group' to fight imperialism. "It was normal to find Mao pictures hung on the walls of the kinderladen," says Koenen. "The children were taken out on to the streets to demonstrate, and in the more radical kinderladen sexual games became part of their play."

GERMANY: ARAB SENTENCED FOR DUSSELDORF

ATTACK A firebomb attack on a synagogue which was used as an impetus for the calls for a ban on the NPD was proved to be the work of a young Palestinian. Belal Thiab, 19, was convicted of arson and weapons charges for throwing three Molotov cocktails at the synagogue on Oct. 2nd, the eve of celebrations for the 10th anniversary of German reunification.

Thiab, an "asylum seeker", and Khalid Zaouaghia, a 20-year-old Moroccan, who were arrested in December, told police their actions were motivated by opposition to Israeli policy relating to Palestinians.

Zaouaghia faces additional charges for participating in a riot at another synagogue, in Essen, five days after the Duesseldorf attack.

READERS' LETTERS

A PROUD SOLDIER

Ed: An FC reader from Scotland asked us about the situation of Captain Priebe and so we asked 'The Black Knight' to put pen to paper and update us on a man who has been used as a scapegoat for political ends.

Dear FC,

here is a brief update on the situation of Captain Priebe who has been slandered re. "war crimes" (Ed: See past FCs).

Captain Priebe lives in Rome, housed by a friend who doesn't care about all the fuss concerning a "dangerous man".

This last living soldier of WW2 is now writing his memoirs, a book which will be out probably at the end of this year. It will be an autobiographic account which will describe his long life as a Soldier of the Third Reich, loyal to the last to the word given and to the orders received.

Captain Priebe is bringing many actions against the people who slandered him and painted him as 'a living monster' coming straight from a Nazi hell'!

He has been a soldier up to the end and has borne all the lies thrown at him with great Dignity and Honour.

He sends greetings to all the Comrades of FC.

The Black Knight, Rome.

SSHSH! QUIET PLEASE!

Dear FC,

I asked Wandsworth Library to stock Many Shades of Black by John Bean and they did! You might mention that libraries will stock this book.

Lawrence, S. London.

Ed: Libraries should stock any book with an ISBN number or with a UK publisher. For example, The History of the Legionary Movement or Fascism in England 1928 - 1940 should be stocked by your local library. Some may charge you 50p or something similar for ordering the book. If you're unsure, get in touch with us at FC and we'll supply you details of books.

EUROPEAN FUTURE

Dear FC,

I read with disgust the report on the raid on a Finnish Comrade for "inciting racial hatred" (newspeak for expressing an opinion on immigration). We TP activists in Upper and Lower Normandy are enraged at this — especially considering how brave Finland's soldiers were 60 years ago when it came to stopping Bolshevik barbarism. It is terrible to hear that they too have fallen foul of the soft Bolshevism of humanist Social Democracy.

Finally may I say how encouraging it was to read that Britons and Irish can work together. Let none of us forget that Celts and Saxons, alongside all Whites, have a place in the sun. The history between Britain and Ireland is none too rosy, but our future can be glorious — if we pull our socks up, Phil, Normandy.

Ed: We have to ask ourselves — are we really pro-White? Do we honestly want 'No More Brothers Wars'?

WORLD NEWS FROM THE WHITE PERSPECTIVE

AMERICA: When Hispanic activists painted a mural with a Jewish landlord shouting for "the rent" outside the door of an Hispanic flat, Los Angeles Zionists complained to the police and painted it out.

AMERICA: Good news following on from Bush's ban on funding pro-abortion initiatives overseas: the State of Vermont banned homosexual "marriages", just one year after the State politicians voted to allow it!

BELGIUM: Vlaams Blok senator Roeland Raes is being sued by the Forum of Jewish Organisations for "minimising the holocaust". Mr. Raes resigned as vice-chairman of VB and is under pressure to resign from the University of Ghent.

BELGIUM: The Belgian foreign secretary caused an uproar when he threatened EU sanctions against Italy if Bossi's anti-immigration Northern League should form part of the next Italian government. Whilst no-one seems to mind the present government — which includes Communists — the same Belgian minister was more than happy to meet White-killer Robert Mugabe!

CANADA: Bill Whatcott of the Christian Truth Activists filed a complaint against the City of Regina because it has failed to respond to his request that June 18 be declared heterosexual family pride day.

FRANCE: The home of expert revisionist

Professor Robert Faurisson has been raided by the French police. The BASLP, "Brigade for [Community] Health Concerns and Public Freedoms" carried out the raid. They were once, more honestly called the Censorship Bureau.

Prof Faurisson, a Socialist, said "As is my habit, I stated to these officers that I refused to collaborate with the French police and justice system in the repression of historical revisionism."

GERMANY: The Federal Constitutional Court said that the Deutsche Bank was allowed to close the accounts of the NPD because it could open accounts elsewhere! It is clear that whilst immigrants, homosexuals, terrorists and paedophiles have "rights" in Germany — Nationalists don't!

ITALY: Guido Mussolini — the 64-year-old grandson of Benito Mussolini — is standing for Forza Nuova in the election for the Mayor of Rome. "We draw inspiration from Mussolini's principles, but we look at the future," said Guido Mussolini has he launched his candidature.

RUSSIA: Supporters have been placing adverts for Final Conflict in Russian Nationalist newspapers. Whilst the language barrier will always keep sales low, they're determined to build up a solid readership for FC in 'Mother Russia'.

* A limited number of stylish Russian 'St George' patches are available from FC.

Phone, write or e-mail for details.

SERBIA: A group of masked men wielding baseball bats and iron bars attacked the offices of the Serb Social Democratic Union (SDU) during a meeting of the "Committee for the Rights of Homosexuals". The pro-homosexual SDU claimed that four "neo-Nazis and Orthodox fanatics" had attacked them and smashed everything they found in the party rooms "including computers and furniture".

SWEDEN: A new distributor is taking FC in bulk for distribution in Sweden (see page 3). The NFKO group is also distributing some FC and TP literature.

SWITZERLAND: 75% of the Swiss population are "extremists" according to Blair and if they founded a government in an EU controlled country they could face sanctions. Why? Because they voted against EU membership!

UKRAINE: The Third Positionist UNA-UNSO leader Andrij Schkil has been held in jail since a demonstration on the 9th of March, despite evidence that violence was plotted by the State militia. The Ukrainian State has held him and other UNA-UNSO members on remand and have denied Schkil urgent medical attention following the violence unleashed by the militia against a peaceful Nationalist demonstration by 18,000 patriots.

THE REVIEWS PAGES

REVIEWS

Ten Miles from Anywhere by John Bean. After raving about the early (non-political) part of his political biography 'Many Shades of Black' in a previous edition of FC, the author was kind enough to send a copy of his previous book into us, hence this review.

Ten Miles from Anywhere deals with the life of the Suffolk village of Wickhambrook and its immediate environs. It does this by taking snippets from the village newsletter from between 1969 and 1994 and many of the stories deal with life from the turn of the century to the mid 90s.

It's a life that anyone who's lived in such a village can associate with. The incomers escaping the multi-racial holes that the larger towns and cities have become and the people known as "outsiders" because they were born in the next village along and only lived in the village for 50 plus years...

This book works well because it brings the characters of the village to life. The pub regulars, the Church-goers etc.

It won't ruffle any feathers — but it's an enjoyable book.

ISBN 0-9525440-0-8. £6.95.

Due to lack of space, some literature reviews will have to wait until next issue — sorry!

REVIEWS

Passalakt by BASIC CELTOS. Available from Basic Cellos, PO Box 194, 23 Rue Lecourbe, 75015, Paris, France.

The third CD from this NR band. Whilst I slated their previous offerings for appearing too much like "rap", this CD appears to be an improvement in the sense that it's moved to a more rock influenced sound — kind of like Faith No More. Whilst to some people this will be very much an acquired taste and my preference lies with folk on the one hand and rock on the other — there will be an audience for this form of Nationalist music, handled and mixed well as it is, and politically they take a very good line. Look out for the Breton song with the bagpipes too! ☺☺☺½

Böse Menschen by BOHSE ONKELS. Available from FC. An oldie-but-goldie from this German skinhead band of the 80's. Good quality Oi! ☺☺☺½

Best of (Volume 1) by CELTIC WARRIOR. Available from FC. What can you expect from a "best of" from CW except the very best? An absolute must for all fans of CW. ☺☺☺

Compilation Collection by CELTIC WARRIOR. Available from FC. This Double CD is a rare treat for CW fans. 21 songs in total, all recorded for compilation CDs, quite a few of the tracks never saw the light of day. An interesting mix of band line-ups and style make this a must-have CD. Put it this way, if you don't buy the CD your friends will call you Mavis and you won't get invited to birthday parties! ☺☺☺

Odwet by DLA IDEI. Available from FC. Polish racial thrash-style music with a good range of melodies and riffs. Excellent quality music of the type we've come to expect from Polish bands of late. Fans of heavier music will enjoy this CD. The lyrics are in Polish — but don't let that spoil the enjoyment of a very good CD. ☺☺☺

Ekspansja by EKSPANSJA. Available from FC. Polish Nationalist rock. This is really top quality Nationalist music, combining a light-ballad sound with nifty guitar riffs. Highly enjoyable. ☺☺☺

No Red Flags by HOBNAIL. Available from FC. This is a bit of a treat for all you RAC sticklers out there. An old-fashioned skinhead band. This was originally a demo and although a little 'rough around the edges', it'll be enjoyed by a large number of Nationalist Oi devotees; I think the 'grittiness' adds to the atmosphere of the CD! ☺☺☺½

Call to Warriors by INTIMIDATION ONE. Available from FC. 18 great tunes (nearly 45 minutes!) which will be enjoyed by all Nationalist Oi fans. ☺☺☺

Fallen Heroes by INTIMIDATION ONE. Available from FC. An enjoyable clean-cut Oi sound with a distinct Nationalist flavour. Includes covers of Ian Stuart, Section 5, Last Resort and Skrewdriver, plus some home-grown anthems. ☺☺☺½

Stand by KEN McLELLAN and STIGGER. Available from FC. The follow-up to this pair's first CD, 'They Died With Pride'. This CD is superb enough to Stand on its own (groan! - sorry) and is good enough to get 5 out of 5 from FC, but it just can't compete with their fantastic first CD. However, don't let that put you off buying a great CD with great tunes. ☺☺☺

Shadows of the Empire by LEGION OF ST. GEORGE. Available from FC. This is the Legion's first CD and, for me, their best. Opens with their anthem, which has the great line "Fighting for folk, faith, family and our nation's cause" followed by the superb 'There Goes the Neighbourhood'. Another highlight of the CD is 'God's Right Hand' about the queer-killer Colin Ireland with the catchy line "Dead queers don't spread AIDS". Altogether a must-have CD! ☺☺☺

Renegade Youth by Max Resist and the Hooligans. Available from FC. This CD is highly enjoyable and contains some real Oi classics, in a Nationalist vein. Good songs - good production. An enjoyable, powerful CD. A must have! ☺☺☺

Ultimate Mistreat by MISTREAT. Available from FC. A compilation of the best material from Mistreat's first two CDs. Most of the songs are in English and this is one powerful CD from one of the best Nationalist bands around! ☺☺☺

Who Dares Wins by NO QUARTER. Available from FC. Another great CD from Lyndon and Billy of Celtic Warrior. A great collection of nifty guitarwork, powerful lyrics and pop-tastic songs! This one spent a long time on Ranting Ron's hi-fi. 'Nuf said! ☺☺☺

Anti-Social by PETER AND THE WOLF. Available from FC. This CD is a bit rough and ready, as it's a collection of demos by one of the earliest RAC bands who existed between '81 and '84. Good historical material though and a must for all serious skinheads! ☺☺☺½

The Awakening by RAGE AND FURY. Available from FC. This CD is a real humdinger. Heavier than most Nationalist music in England, without going into full blown Thrash. Some cracking songs; the best one is probably 'My England' - "Burn down the commons"! Oh yes! ☺☺☺☺

A Tribute to Johnny Rebel by REALM OF DEUTSCHLAND. Available from FC. This is a superb CD of Southern Nationalist songs by Confederate artists. I had this on a tape many years ago, so this CD is clearly a re-issue of some American material. Best songs: 'Ain't I Right' is a real corker as is 'Rebel Soldier' — and there's lots others too. A Rebtastic CD! Great for playing in the car! ☺☺☺☺

Stand Up and be Counted by THE REBELLS. Available from FC. Cover-versions of old Confederate/Klan songs. Well recorded and produced, excellent quality CD and much clearer than some of the old versions. Would have been better with an American singer though... Finishes with an original Confederate anthem "Good Old Rebel". ☺☺☺½

Bring Forth the War by RETALIATOR. Available from FC. What else could we expect from Billy and Nigel of Celtic Warrior fame but a great CD? And boy oh boy we get it! Groovy guitar riffs, storming vocals and superb quality of sound! Songs against Big Brother/the System stand out... This is a real treat, great graphics too — see if you can spot the criminal band members! Good stuff! ☺☺☺☺

I Stand Alone by RETALIATOR. Available from FC. This CD is different from Bring Forth the War. It seems heavier in tone and mood. Seems to be a mix of Thrashy Rock, occasional synthesized voices etc. even sometimes to the extent of trying too hard to be "different". Excellent quality — bizarre graphics on the cover though... ☺☺☺

Stand Your Ground by SPEARHEAD. A joint project by Avalon and English Rose, so you know you're gonna get a hot CD. This really is a great "RAC" CD. Some great tracks including the title track and 'Dealers of Hate'. ☺☺☺½

Sieg Oder Tod by STUKA ATTACKE. Available from FC. German Nationalist rock at its best. Toe-tapping tunes, includes a special appearance by Billy of Celtic Warrior on the track Destiny, plus guest appearances on other tracks. Good stuff — you'll enjoy this one! ☺☺☺½

Zerschlagt den Terror by STURMWHER. Available from FC. Top notch German RAC. This CD is a real toe-tapper. All the songs are in German, except 'About Our Fallen Heroes'. The quality of the CD production is superb and the musicianship is also first class. Excellent! ☺☺☺☺

Paradise Lost by SYMPHANY OF SORROW. Available from FC. This CD works very well. The female vocalist Saga comes over very clearly and the music is a good mix of heavy and light guitar-work.

The Camp of the Saints is a very apt song given the huge volumes of immigrants pouring into Europe! And this CD is a welcome addition to the Nationalist arsenal! ☺☺☺☺

Non Possumus by SZWADRON 97. Available from FC. A clean-cut Nationalist Oi sound from this NR Polish band. As with so much coming out of Poland, the quality of this CD is top notch, and with some of the lyrics translated into English you know this band's Nationalist credentials are excellent. ☺☺☺

A Clatter O Fowk by VARIOUS. This CD is a part of a growing trend in Lowland Scotland and Northern Ireland to reclaim a "Scots" identity, based primarily on the Scots dialect. This CD is certainly very professional and has great mix of folk, bagpipes, and even stories and poems! Perhaps if the Northern Irish and Scots Protestants can embrace more of their own culture, like this, instead of seeking cultural ties with England, they might achieve more recognition for their own traditions and culture. Do buy this CD — you'll enjoy it! ☺☺☺☺

Underground Sampler by VARIOUS. Available from FC. A collection of tunes from Schachtruf, No Quarter, Kommando Skin, Retaliator and Sturmwehr so a good mix of German and English language Nationalist tunes of a good quality. ☺☺☺

Verdunkeln by THE VOICE. Available from FC. Early 90s American racialist Oi! "Traditionalists" will love this sound — Nationalist skinhead rock. A bit too "negative" in parts for me, but enjoyable music. ☺☺☺

MERRIE ENGLAND 2001

A KIND reader sent in a copy of "Tomorrow's Tooting" which was passed onto me. In this part of South London — where FC supporters live — the White population is really on the defensive!

In the broadsheet 41 Black and Asian faces appear, against two White faces!

Is this anti-White racism?

There are also parts of the freebie bulletin printed in Bengali, Gujarati, Hindi, Punjabi and Urdu!

COLIN JORDAN IN COURT

COLIN JORDAN has appeared in Leeds Crown Court. As we go to press a medical report has shown that he is too old to stand trial for distributing "anti-Semitic" material. If the trial goes ahead Jordan and the printer will face charges of "publishing racial hatred" under the Public Order Act, in relation to the booklet 'Merrie England 2000', the leaflet 'Jack Straws Jewish Justice' and Jordan's newsletter 'Gothic Ripples'.

A second medical opinion is being sought prior to a judicial hearing on May the 14th when a decision on the trial will take place. Should the trial take place, it is likely to occur around September or November.

Some observers have linked this court case to the fact that Jordan successfully sued the North Yorkshire Police for raids carried out at his home due to his political activities.

WEIRDO AND THE RABBI

OH WHAT joy to see Michael Jackson turn up in Oxford to give a lecture for his Charity "Feel the Kids" surrounded by the wonderful Jewish entertainer Uri Geller and the even more wonderful Rabbi Boteach.

NO DOUBLE STANDARDS

WHEN THE Daily Mirror ran a front page piece on baby murder and forced abortions in China they took what is now called "the high moral ground".

The same newspaper has condemned Pro-Life activists for picketing abortuaries in England.

What is the difference between China and England? The birth rate has plummeted here. The politicians are now talking of the "need" for immigrants (i.e. racial genocide).

So the Chinese face financial costs from the State if they have more than one child. Here poverty is used as an excuse — even by Socialists who "claim" to defend workers — to murder children in the millions.

True, in China one might, once in a blue moon, find a baby in the roadside. But just because we are careful enough to put our dead babies in black bags... does it make us any better?

FC has postcards of dead babies found in rubbish bins, at roadsides etc. etc. and those are in the "civilised" West.

HATE ATTACK IN ENGLAND

Feb 16 2001

By The Huddersfield Daily Examiner

A TAXI driver was wounded in a knife attack by robbers. The 35-year-old victim picked up the two men in Brackenhall at 11:00 last night and they directed him to Nether Crescent in Rawthorpe, where the back seat passenger held a knife to his throat and told his accomplice to grab the driver's takings. The driver put his hand between the knife and his throat, but ended up with cuts to his fingers and ear. The robbers stole £60 and his car keys. Both were African Caribbean men aged in their late 20s or early 30s.

This is nonsense. Clinton pardoned Rich for his own benefit. But the effort of Rich's strategists to turn their client into a
